Pioneering The 'Big Sister' Program

It was a happy "first" meeting in the offices of the Family Service Agency on Hanbury Street. Standing right, the first "Little Sister" in Washington County met her "Big Sister." Mrs. Richard Dellinger, left, and Shirley Butts, right, were happy about the new relationship.

The Big Sister Program Locally Begins With First Relationship

"The Big Sister Program," noted Shirley Butts, "is a very worthwhile human relationship. As a social worker, I feel that the relationship helps to improve the lives of those involved."

This was part of a letter to the Daily Mail, Hagerstown, Maryland, written by Mrs. Sencindiver, president of the Zonta Club.

With North High's Orchestra

Violist And String Clinician

To Appear In Symphony Concert
