Trip Planned By Goodwill

The Goodwill Industries truck will pick up items on three days next week in this area. The vehicle on Monday will visit Colonial Park, Jefferson Heights, Beaver Creek, Chewsville, Smithsburg, Blue Ridge Summit, Fort Ritchie, Rouzerville, Ringgold and Waynesboro.

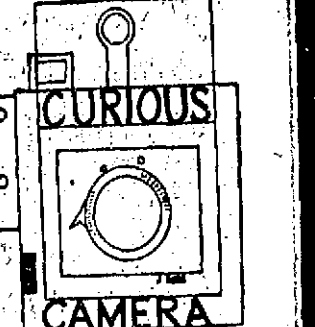

On Tuesday, it will cover Hagerstown's North End, including Carroll Heights, Hamilton Park, and Fountain Head Heights, as well as Paramount and Maugansville.

The trip Thursday will be through the South End and West End of Hagerstown, together with Funkstown, Halfway, Tammany Manor, St. James Village, and Cedar Lawn.

It was emphasized that to have the truck stop, persons must call Regent 3-7330 or Waynesboro 80. A uniformed driver will then pick up the things and will give a receipt.

Materials given to Goodwill provide 54 handicapped and disabled workers with continued employment at their task of renovating and repairing the things for sale in the Goodwill store.

Needed are all types of clothing and shoes, as well as large and small electrical appliances, mechanical wheels, furniture, washers, heaters, and gas, oil and electric stoves.
