Big Brothers Of Hagerstown To Function As Corporation

Big Brothers of Hagerstown, an H. Garotti, Rev. L. Boyd Hamm, organization that has been in the making for months, has been incorporated by the State Tax Commission, it was announced yesterday.

organization set up here since he feels there is a great need locally for the movement. The object of the Big Brothers movement, Mr. Berkson explained, is to organize a body of mature and responsible men to interest themselves individually in the welfare of underprivileged boys whose physical, mental and moral development has been hindered or endangered because of inadequate parental supervision, bad environment or other conditions.

Plans call for eventually establishing permanent headquarters in some central location. The headquarters will be of a size to allow for some recreational facilities. The future will take care of this step, Mr. Berkson said, and explained that direct affiliation with the national organization of Big Brothers is conditioned on the setting up of permanent headquarters.

The present membership is made up of men of various faiths who have established businesses of their own or are otherwise successful in their work. The membership, naturally, is open to reputable men of all faiths, racial and ethnic groups and needless to say there will be no discrimination as to boys needing help.
